

The Netherlands Easter Trophy will be held for the 9th time in 2017 and is rapidly gaining a reputation as one of the leading tournaments in Holland.

FOOTBALL

The football tournament is played at excellent facilities in the neighbouring villages of Hengelo and Keyenborg, about 30 minutes to the north of Arnhem.

A maximum of 12 teams per age group will be split into groups of 4, 5 or 6. Each team plays group games on the Saturday with further matches to determine winners and placement positions on the Sunday. Duration of games is 2 x 20 minutes.

Age dispensations on request. Facilities at both grounds are excellent with a total of 6 grass pitches, there is a training area, clubhouse, snack bar and first aid at both facilities.

“ All went well thanks and we had a great weekend. Centre Parcs, the tournament, Ajax tour were really fantastic. The tournament was slick, well run, on time Centre Parcs was a big success the families loved the activities especially the Aqua mundo. Coaches were great, comfortable and well equipped. Thanks to you for all the organising and swift responses to any of our requirements. We had a really memorable weekend which was just what we had hoped for to celebrate our 25th anniversary and even returned with a trophy or two!

LOCAL INFORMATION

The villages of Hengelo and Keyenborg are located in the province of Gelderland, close to the German border and near to Arnhem, a city made famous by its 'Bridge Too Far'.

Today, Arnhem is a very modern city with excellent shopping and fantastic nightlife. The province of Gelderland is very attractive with historic cities and lovely villages.

The hub of the tournament is the spacious clubhouse and outside terrace overlooking the pitches. Sightseeing possibilities include a visit to Amsterdam and the Ajax Stadium.
