Over 50 teams competed for the Arnhem Bridge Cup in 2019, places are limited so early bookings are essential.

TESTIMONIALS

“ Thank you for arranging a great trip, we had a great time. The boys and parents loved the tour and hope to do something again in the future.

Garry Fiore,
The Rondos Academy

“ Thank you Stuart for again providing us with all the expertise to put on a great trip. We got home safely at 7.45 last night. Ian the coach driver from Worthing Coaches was exceptional, it was like having another member of staff and he is a credit to his company. The hotel was perfect and the tournament once again well organised in a very good venue.

Hope to sort out something similar again next year.

Mark Seltzer,
Chairman BHDSFA

FOOTBALL TOURS & TOURNAMENTS

ARNHEM

Arnhem is situated in the province of Gelderland, close to the German border and around 5 hours from the channel port of Calais. The city is famous for its 'Bridge Too Far' and its role in 'Operation Market Garden' during WW2 when the British Airborne Division parachuted into Arnhem and held the bridge for several days against overwhelming odds.

There are several monuments to the battle around the area including the museum at the British HQ at nearby Oosterbeek. It's also possible to visit the Gelredome, home of Vitesse Arnhem, a state of the art stadium with retractable roof and removable pitch.
