IN OUR OPINION

Looking for something different? Well our REYKJAVETS tournament offers this, a fantastic warm (well cold) welcome for all the teams to this event. A superb indoor football facility hosts the tournament with a pre-tournament get together on the Friday and a presentation meal with live music rounds off a great day. Iceland also offers lots of sightseeing options including the world famous Blue Lagoon, Golden Circle tours, Northern Lights to name just a few attractions.

TESTIMONIALS

“ Hey Malcolm!
We had great time at Reykjavets thank you. Hopefully we see you somewhere else next year. We are looking for another place to go next year, maybe Jersey.

Kjartan, Eiol Old Boys, Norway

“ Hi Stuart, many thanks for an excellent weekend – Iceland was superb and everyone in the party had a great time.

Tim Smith, HCT Vets

“ Hi Stuart, it was a blast we did stay out much too late the night before playing so we weren't too competitive but it's not the first time ! Our hosts were very hospitable, good organisation and hotel, and met some great people, plus amazing food at the Gala dinner. Thanks for your help along the way.

FOOTBALL TOURS & TOURNAMENTS

ICELAND

Iceland is a unique country that offers pristine nature, breathtaking landscapes and vibrant culture. Widely known as the "The Land of Fire and Ice", Iceland's most distinctive features are active volcanoes, glacier cut fjords, roaring rivers, spectacular waterfalls, black sand beaches, and its world famous geysers and 'Northern Lights'.

The capital Reykjavik is the world's northernmost capital. By day this attractive and cosmopolitan city boasts art galleries, museums, and a relaxed cafe culture. The city has some excellent restaurants, and a lively nightlife scene, with many bars and clubs offering live music and open until 4am or later.

Reykjavik is the gateway to Iceland and day trips can be taken to the surrounding mountains, glaciers, volcanoes and hot springs, including the Blue Lagoon.
